The Court further finds that no objection to the Motion or request for hearing was filed by the EPA, the U.S. Trustee, any creditor entitled to notice pursuant to the Omnibus Order, or by any other party in interest, within twenty days of the date of service thereof. The Court further finds that the EPA initiated discussions with the Debtor and the Trustee with respect to clean up of a waste disposal facility previously occupied by Summit National Liquid Services at the intersections of State Route 224 and U.S. 225 in Deerfield, Ohio (the "Deerfield Site"). This memo is to request a writeoff of Chemtrol Adhesives BD Number 05295TB007. The background is as follows:

Chemtrol Adhesives went into bankruptcy. The original receivable agreement was for $93,253 which was what we booked. However, the final distribution was for $6,516.19. This was paid by check which we received. Because of the check, we would like to write off the remainder of the receivable. We have a document from the bankruptcy court of the Northern District of Ohio signed by R. Wilson, Case Trustee which approves the final distribution. The writeoff amount of principal would be $86,736.81. May we write this off?
